

How will you be part of Wyoming's history?

Today's young women must continue the tradition of adding their own achievements to Wyoming's legacy. I want to know what the future holds for Wyoming through the minds of our youth and invite young women in grades 7-12 to participate in this essay contest.

Write an essay of no more than 500 words titled "How I will be a part of Wyoming history." Submit the essay by email to Penny Rodriguez at penny.rodriguez@wyo.gov on or before October 31, 2019. Essays will be evaluated by a Wyoming Department of Education team, and the winner will be notified by November 10. One young woman will come to Cheyenne on December 10 (with one parent/guardian) to read their essay or speak at the Capitol on Women's Suffrage Day. They will also meet women leaders from the executive and legislative branches and other officials.

For more information, contact Michelle Panos, at michelle.panos1@wyo.gov or (307) 777-8568.

Jillian Balow
Superintendent of Public Instruction

WYOMING
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

